

Mark Krause is the Senior Director of Corporate Security for Target Corporation. He has held numerous leadership positions at Target for twenty years and now provides vision and direction for the company's global security functions. His responsibilities include headquarters security, crisis management, threat assessment, security intelligence, traveler security, business continuity, executive protection, forensic services, and all overseas security operations.

Mark is actively engaged in government and industry groups through the International Security Management Association (ISMA), ASIS International, the Overseas Security Advisory Council (OSAC), the Domestic Security Advisory Council (DSAC), and the Global Security Executive Roundtable (GSER). Engagement with local associations includes serving as an executive board member for the Twin Cities Security Partnership (TCSP).

Mark graduated from Northern Michigan University with a bachelor's degree in Justice Studies. He is a Certified Protection Professional (CPP) through ASIS International.